Acceptance of Terms

The information and other resources on this site are offered to you free of charge so long as you accept these terms of use. Your use of the information and resources provided, or any of them, will be treated as acceptance of these terms.

We reserve the right to vary or supplement these terms from time to time, so please check them regularly. They were last updated on 11 November 2014.

Status of Information and Disclaimer of Liability

We try to keep the information on this site up to date, but cannot promise that it will be fully accurate or up to date at all times. In particular, certain products or services may not be available in your country. For confirmation of the status of any particular information, please contact CGC Space directly at info@cgc-space.com.

All product information here is to be regarded as provisional only, and subject to change at any time. It should always be confirmed before any order is placed. No information on this site is to be treated as an offer, representation or warranty, or as forming part of any contract.

CGC Space will not be liable for any loss or damage resulting from reliance on any information on or software downloaded from this site, whether or not it results from our negligence, so please check any information and test any downloaded software carefully. This statement is subject to applicable law, and does not affect any liability CGC Space may have under UK law for death or personal injury resulting from its negligence.

CGC Space will not in any circumstances be liable for any indirect or consequential loss, including (as non-exclusive examples only) business interruption or loss of profit.

Privacy and Confidentiality

CGC Space does not automatically collect or capture any personal data (that is, information about people whom we can identify) about visitors to this site, except that their IP addresses may be automatically logged by our web server. We do not use cookies. Where we invite you to enter personal information, our general policy is to ask only for what we need and to use it only for the stated or obvious purposes for which it was collected (for example, to send you a brochure or press release at your request).

If we indicate that your personal information may be used for general (including direct) marketing purposes, we will give you the opportunity to withhold your permission for that use and respect your wishes. If you do not indicate any objection, your information may be made available to our computerised customer management system. It will then be used to contact you with information about products and services we think may be of interest to you, as well as for adapting our products and services to your requirements, for market research and planning purposes, and for any other purposes for which it was expressly or obviously collected.

Any personal information we collect about you may be transmitted to one of our associate companies, or one of our sales agents or distributors, or to a collaborator such as a mailing house who fulfils your request on CGC Space's behalf, but will never be sent to anybody else without your express consent. It will not be sent outside the European Economic Area unless the recipient agrees with us to protect it and treat it as if the recipient had the same obligations in respect of it as we have in the EEA.

You may at any time ask to see the data we hold about you, and if it is incorrect we will correct or delete it at your request. Our Data Protection Officer is responsible for your data for this purpose: info@cgc-space.com.

Any information you send us that is not about identifiable people, whether commercial, technical, information about companies, or of any other kind, will not be regarded as confidential, whether or not it is described as such. It is a condition of your use of this site that CGC Space may disclose such information freely and use it in any other way it thinks fit.

Software Downloads

Unless otherwise indicated, CGC Space or its associate companies own the copyright in all software available for downloading from this site. You may not use any downloaded software unless you accept the terms of the licence agreement applicable to it, which will be displayed as part of the installation procedure.

Software can be corrupted in transmission and use of any such software is at your own risk.

Copyright in Text and Images

You may view it, download and print it for your own reference only, and for circulation strictly within your own organisation, but may not modify or make any further use of it or copy it to any other person, or make any commercial use of it whatsoever, without the written permission of CGC Space.
